Shortcut to Informal Spanish Conversations Level 2

Lesson 2

Here is the first easy informal verb form for this lesson

(usted) tiene - you have (formal) (tú) tienes- you have (informal)

Notice the pronouns in parenthesis.

Usted is formal, $\mathbf{t\acute{u}}$ is informal. However, in everyday language these pronouns are very often not used, especially with the $\mathbf{t\acute{u}}$ form. That's why, in this lesson you'll use the verbs without pronouns in this way;

Tiene - you have (formal)
Tienes- you have (informal)

The reason I teach you this way, without the pronouns, is because it is the Spanish you are going to hear in the real world.

In this lesson there is just the one present tense verb to remember, plus you'll take your...

First Step Making Informal Conversations and Start To Talk About What Happened In The Past

If you have complete Shortcut to Spanish level 2, then you are comfortable with Spanish Conversation Booster Pattern 3 and using the power verb haber like this;

Ha visitado - you have visited (formal)

You just need to remember to use, has, for the informal form (remember h is silent in Spanish).

Has visitado - you have visited (informal)
